PROJECTS

Market Tone | <https://ketemakidus.github.io/marketToneApp/>

This app determines the market tone of a company or stock ticker using the IBM Watson Tone Analyzer. It will attempt to provide a solid indicator of whether to buy, sell, or hold a stock (displaying a picture) based on the tone returned by Watson Tone Analyzer.

Tokyo Draft | <https://tokyo-draft-mango.herokuapp.com/>

A game similar to "League of Legends" video game in which the two players choose players to "race", or "battle" each other based on stats. The player that chooses the basketball players with the best stats wins Knowledge of NBA players, and March Madness is not mandatory, but would help A-LOT. (2019 stats current) Player with the most points wins!
